

A group poem

My perfect house

My perfect house is a mansion with a money machine inside.

Adrian Pedida

My perfect house has 292-inch Samsung TV
and a recording studio where I can record my music.

Nikki Bayer

My perfect house has a theatre for showing movies and a basketball court to play.

Dranhev Cuaresma

My perfect house has its own McDonalds.

Revin Pedida

My perfect house has a big room for making clothes.

Maria Vang

My perfect house has
Its own tunnel to go to town.

Eevana Tavina

My perfect house is going to be huge and it will be just for me and myself living in it.

Siaosi Siupolu

My perfect house has a big football field.

Jowan Ni

My perfect house has wheels
So I can bring it wherever I go.

Hannah Cervantes

My perfect house is near a beach where
I can watch the sun going down
And hear the waves.

Dhan Cuaresma

My perfect house has an old-fashioned stone wall.
It is in the middle of a quiet and beautiful lawn
where you can hear the sounds of birds.

Unaiza Akram

My perfect house has a secret waterfall
Covered with trees and flying butterflies.

Maria Cervantes

My perfect house has a swimming pool.
It will be near my sister's house
So my nephew can come and stay.

Nga Meh

My perfect house will have a lot of living rooms and my whole family would fit in.
It will be in a perfect and peaceful place, and on a strong bold foundation.

Al-Jay Ugapo

My perfect house would have buckets of different coloured paints.
I would paint every corner of the house
And this would be my perfect masterpiece.

Brian Fiedalan

My perfect house has a beautiful family who live in it, and I will have a bedroom by myself.

Hanadi Al Bakhas

We are all students at Mana College in Porirua. We are new to New Zealand, from Philippines, Vietnam, Samoa, Myanmar, Syria and Pakistan.

